It is expressly understood, however, that no grievance may proceed beyond Step One herein unless it constitutes a complaint or controversy arising over the interpretation of the terms and conditions of this agreement. It is further understood that disputes concerning terms and conditions of employment governed by statute or administrative regulations, incorporated by reference in the Agreement whether expressly or by operation of law, shall not be processed beyond Step One herein. It is further understood that this grievance procedure could not be invoked to obtain any matter which the Union sought but could not obtain at the bargaining table during the negotiations that led to this Agreement. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 34:13A-5-3, nothing herein shall be construed to deny to any individual employee his rights under Civil Service Laws or Regulations. Accordingly, in the event an employee elects to pursue Civil Service remedies, no recourse to the grievance procedure will be available. Likewise, in the event the employee elects to invoke this grievance procedure, no recourse to Civil Service remedies will be available.

Time extensions may be mutually agreed to by the Borough and the Union, but such time extensions shall be in writing. In the absence of a written extension as aforesaid, the time limits express herein shall be strictly adhered to. If any grievance has not been initiated within the time limits specified, the grievance shall be deemed to have been waived. If any grievance is not processed to the next succeeding step in the grievance procedure within the limits prescribed, then the disposition of the grievance at the last preceding step shall be deemed to be conclusive. A failure to respond at any level within the time limit provided shall be deemed a denial of the grievance at that step.

If the aggrieved employee so requests, he shall be permitted to have the Union steward present at the meeting. Any such meeting shall not be scheduled at a time that interferes with governmental efficiency, as the latter is reasonably determined by management. The supervisor shall attempt to adjust the matter and shall respond orally to the grievance within three (3) working days after the meeting

STEP TWO

If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step One the aggrieved employee or a Union representative shall reduce the grievance to writing, sign the grievance, and file the grievance with the aggrieved employee's department head within five (5) working days after receipt (or after the due date) of the Step One response. To be timely and effective, the written grievance must set forth in reasonable detail:

The specific action the precipitated the grievance.

The specific clause of the contract or other policy that was violated by the action.

The basis of reasoning that the action is a violation of the contract or policy.

The specific remedy being sought.

The Department Head shall render a written response to the grievance within seven (7) working days from receipt of the written grievance.

STEP THREE

If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step Two, the aggrieved employee or a Union representative may file the grievance in writing with the Borough Administrator within five (5) working days after receipt (or after due date) of the Step Two response. To be timely effective, the writing filed with the Borough Administrator must contain the written grievance filed at Step Two, the department head's response at Step Two (if any) and a detailed statement of the reasons why the department head's response is claimed to be unsatisfactory. The Borough Administrator shall render a written response to the grievance within ten (10) working days from receipt of the grievance. The determination of the Borough Administrator shall be final and binding.

STEP FOUR

If the grievance is not settled to the aggrieved employee's satisfaction at Step Three, the Union representative may refer the matter to binding arbitration pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Public Employment Relations Commission within ten (10) working days after the determination by the Borough Administrator.

ARTICLE XVII

SEPARABILITY AND SAVINGS

If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of this Agreement, or any application thereof to any employee or group of employees, is held to be invalid by operation of law or by Court or other tribunal of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be inoperative but all other provisions shall not be affected thereby and shall continue in full force and effect.

ARTICLE XVIII

FULLY BARGAINED PROVISIONS

- A. This agreement represents and incorporates the complete and final understanding and settlement by the parties of all negotiable issues which have or could have been the subject of collective negotiations. The parties acknowledge that during the negotiations that resulted in this Agreement, each had the unlimited right and Therefore, the Borough and the Union, for the life of this Agreement, each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waives the rights, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated to bargain or negotiate with respect to any subject or matter referred to or covered in this Agreement, or with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to or covered in this Agreement, even though such subjects or matters may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both parties, at the time they negotiated or signed this Agreement. The Union agrees that such action would constitute a material breach of the Agreement.

- B. In the event of a strike, work stoppage, slowdown, or other job action, it is agreed that participation in any such activity by any employee covered by this Agreement shall be ground for disciplinary action which may include suspension or termination.
- C. The Union will actively discourage any of its members or persons acting on their behalf from taking part in any strike, slowdown, or job action, and make reasonable efforts to prevent such illegal actions.
- D. Nothing contained in the Agreement shall be construed to limit or restrict the Borough of its rights to seek and obtain such administrative or judicial relief as it may be entitled to have in law or in equity for injunction or damage, or both, in the event of such breach by the Union, its members, or any person acting on its behalf.
